

Family Camp Strengthening Families

Outlaw Ranch, in the Black Hills

Come spend quality time with your family in a relaxed atmosphere in the Black Hills. Outlaw Ranch welcomes families of all sizes and descriptions.

“ My husband and I asked our kids, “Where would you like to vacation this summer - DisneyWorld? Colorado? Kansas City to the Amusement Park? Wisconsin Dells? Our kids said, “ NO WAY! We have to go to Family Camp at Outlaw Ranch! ”

- Kristi Lee, Brookings SD

In the mornings, adults spend time together in conversation and learning, guided by the weekly resource leader, while youth enjoy activities with our well-trained counselors and artist-in-residence. Afternoons are open for families to spend time together in many camp activities or enjoying all the attractions the Black Hills of South Dakota have to offer. Each night draws to a close with worship around the crackling of the campfire. And, the delicious home-cooked meals speak for themselves.
